Mission of the CHBC

This mission statement is accomplished through the hosting of consumer outreach seminars, educational programs and specialized social events. Information shared at monthly committee meetings provides members with up-to-date consumer information as well as suggestions for improving both the quality of construction and the profitability of council members.

Council Membership Eligibility

You are eligible for Council membership if the company you are currently employed with is a member of the Home Builders Association of St. Louis and Eastern Missouri. For assistance, please call our receptionist at 314-994-7700.

If you are not a member of the HBA and would like an application, please logon to our website at www.stlhb.com or call Jaime Weyrauch at 314-994-7700 (x133).

Council Membership Dues

Annual membership dues are $75 per person payable to the Home Builders Association. Your first dues payment should accompany your application.

The main contact on an HBA builder membership is eligible for one complimentary council membership. Please call Jaime Weyrauch at 314-994-7700 (x133) for more information/eligibility.

Coordinating Committee

The CHBC Coordinating Committee meets each month to plan educational offerings, brainstorm event ideas and schedule the monthly programs and seminars.

For more information on the CHBC Coordinating Committee, please contact Steve Loos at 314-994-7700 (x119).

Membership Benefits

* Professional growth opportunities

* Educational programs and speakers

* Incredible networking opportunities

* Free subscriptions to Options (HBA Newsletter) and Builder News (HBA magazine)
