Bring a notepad and lots of business cards! As of February 8, eighteen builders and remodelers were committed to attend and/or participate (see list on next page). They'll spend time networking with attendees during cocktails and then sit down to discuss much more during dinner and the roundtable sessions following dinner. Strategically choose your dinner partners upon arrival (seats being offered on a first arrival basis – 2 builders/remodelers and 8 associates max. per table). During dinner, take time to learn all you can about how your preferred table partners operate and let them know how you're a perfect fit for their business. The additional builders and remodelers you'll see during the shorter roundtable sessions after dinner will also provide you with ample time to learn and network. Don't wait – register today!
