

Easy. Efficient. Affordable. The Tankless Water Heater Revolution

Cliff Garrett of Spire and Tim Teicher of Rinnai America will discuss the newest technology and benefits of tankless water heaters, including comparisons with gas and electric water heaters. Attendees will receive a first-hand look at new tankless models, view the space saving capabilities and newest product supplies for easy installation. Plus, an overview of benefits and cost-savings will be provided to assist in selling to new and existing home owners.

This seminar is beneficial to builders, remodelers, real estate sales people and new home sales representatives as tankless water heaters are becoming a sought-after trend by homeowners seeking more comfort for less money.
